6. Describe fully the nature of the business of the person in respect of whom this Exhibit is filed. (If a bureau, agency, or department of a foreign government, describe fully the functions of such bureau, agency or department):

A New York Corporation organized to conduct a news exchange bureau and to engage in all kinds of work connected therewith or incidental thereto; to acquire, print, publish, conduct, circulate or otherwise deal with any publication or publications.

The American Swedish News Exchange, Inc. sells Swedish news pictures to American agencies, writes magazine and newspaper articles by special agreement with editors. Lends Swedish pictures from its files to writers and publishers of books and magazines, especially text and reference books. Does research and fact finding work for writers and publishers. Reads proof and corrects spellings of proper names in books about Sweden. Answers questions about Swedish life and activities. Acts as the American correspondent for "Tidningarnas Telegrambyrå" of Stockholm, Sweden (The Associated Press of Sweden). Assists visiting Swedish newspaper correspondents; acts as occasional spot news correspondents for Swedish newspapers on special assignments; writes special mail articles for newspapers in Sweden.

The American Swedish News Exchange, Inc. has co-operated with the Swedish Travel Information Bureau, Inc. in preparing advertising and publicity material.

The American Swedish News Exchange, Inc. contributes to the American Swedish Monthly and the American-Scandinavian Review, and occasionally sends information to the Swedish language weeklies throughout the United States, as in the case of the recent New Sweden Tercentenary, in which it assisted in the preliminary publicity and press contact work.

7. (See Instruction 3)

- (a) The extent, if any, to which such person, if other than individual, is supervised, directed, owned, controlled, financed, or subsidized, in whole or in part, by any government of a foreign country or a foreign political party:

Part of the operating income of the American Swedish News Exchange, Inc. is derived from a monthly grant from the Swedish Government. These grants total $6,316.60 annually. In accepting the grant the American Swedish News Exchange, Inc. has never incurred any obligation to the Swedish Government, contractual or implied, other than to supply the Swedish Government through its Stockholm office with a report of its activities and economic conditions.

- (b) The extent, if any, to which such person, if other than an individual, is owned or controlled by any person other than a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party:

Does not apply

8. Give the date when the registrant first undertook or agreed to undertake (whichever is earlier) any activities on behalf of, or in the interests of, the person in respect of whom this Exhibit is filed:

Since approximately April 1940

9. Attach a statement setting forth in full detail every activity requiring registration under the Act which the registrant performs, or has agreed to perform, on behalf of, or in the interests of, the person in respect of whom this Exhibit is filed. (See Instruction 5 and Rules 100, 302 and 303 for a description of some of the types of activities which shall be set forth in this statement):

For statement see Exhibit C - Item 0 - Insert 1
